THE COURTS.

THE RIGHT OF BANKERS' LIENS

Severe Arraignment of an Unloving Wife.

"TEAPOT" MEDIUM. THAT

Cashier Taintor's Financial Operations.

A case which cannot fail to be of unusual interest not only to members of the bar, but also to bankers and those having financial relations with banks, was submitted on briefs yesterday to Judge Wallace, of the United States Circuit Court, for his decision. The facts are briefly as follows :-- A note of the Brooklyn and Newtown Railroad Company, indorsed by Palmer & Co., for $5,000, had been placed by the company with Hutchinson & Ingersoli, note brokers, for sale or discount. Instead of selling it they hypothecated it Republic as security for a loan of $36,000. Subsequently Hutchinson & Ingersoll borrowed of the bank $10,000 upon another lot of collaterals The railroad company had various transactions with Hutchinson & Ingersoil, resulting in a balance due from the railroad company to the firm of $601. This amount they offered to the firm and demanded back Finding that it had been hypothecated with the bank they tendered the same amount to it and made a similar demand. Afterward the $36,000 loan was paid off, and the bank, claiming a banker's lien upon the note for the amount due on the $10,000 loan, sued Palmer & Co., the indersers, for the whole amount. They offered to pay the $601, with interest, but the offer was refused. The suit was brought in the Supreme Court of the State, in this district, and was referred to Hon, Murray Hoffman, formerly a Judge of the Experior Court. He decided that the bank could recover only the $601 upon the note, and judgment for that amount was duly entered and paid. The bank then brought suit against the railread company upon the same note in the United States Circuit Court, upon the supposition that the current of decisions in the federal courts upon bankers' hens was different from that of the State courts. The company belended the suit of the State courts. The company federal decided against the bank in the State court; that they had not appealed from that decision, but had accepted the money awarded them by it, and should not be permitted to try their luck a second time by bringing a suit in a United States court. In the paints submitted on behalf of the bank by Mr. Thomas H. Roman, counsel, his chief reliance was based upon the theory that a recovery against one party is no bar to a defence set up by another and disconnected party; that the principle is that a man shall be heard before he is condemned; that estoppets must be mutual; that a judgment against the indorser in lavor of the indorser would not bind the paintiff, and that partial payment is not a satisfaction. He also argued that under the decisions of the United States courts the plaintiff is favor of the indorser would not bind the paintiff, and that partial payment is not a satisfaction. He also argued that under the decisions of the United States courts the plaintiffs had a good cause of action for the entire amount of the more. In a very extended brief, in which he cites nearly sixty authorities, Mr. Dudley Field combats the theory thus presented on behalf of the bank. He says the principle invoked on the plaintiffs he had, a factor, to seek in this manner to get the benefit of an appeal. In all the cases cited by plaintiff, he contends, the defendants were not restricted in their defended in the bank in the fact of the plaintiff. There is little doubt that the first judgment (had theen favorable to the plaintiffs, he contends the defendants were not restricted in their defended had been favorable to the plaintiffs and not collected) would have been ins indement for that amount was duly entered and paid-The bank then brought suit against the railroad company upon the same note in the United States Circuit nder the constitution or laws of the is one arising under the constitution of laws of the United States. The case is one which excites more than ordinary interest among members of the Bar, anakers and financial men generally, and the opinion of Judge Wallace will be eagerly looked for as deciding a yet unsettled question in relation to bankers' liens, as well as the right to what is regarded as an unpresedented mode of appeal from State to lederal jurisdiction.

"MORE SINNED AGAINST THAN

SINNING." In a divorce suit, pending in the Court of Common Pleas, between Adelaide Altman and her husband, Ignatz Altman, on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment of his wife by the latter, an application was made to Judge Van Hoesen, on the part of the wife, for an allowance of alimony and a counsel fee. In an opinion rendered by the Judge yesterday, denying the application of the wife, he sums up the statements contained in the afildavits used on the motion in a manner somewhat uncomplimentary to the woman. He says:-"I do not believe that a less meritorious application for altmony was ever made. If the ev dence upon the trial shall establish the facts alleged in the affidavits the complaint will certainly be distilised. The defendant seems to be a main more sinned against then scaning. The affidavits show him to be it a kine and affectionate deposition, much more likely to suffer wrong from than to do wrong to his wife. They show furthermore that the wife was in the habit of publicly insulting him and of repelling his advances. There is hitle doubt that she is lacking in affection for him. She alleges that on the 10th day of November, 1876, he violently struck her without cause or provocation. This the accendant positively denies, and I give credence to that denial. The affidavits satisfy me that the plaintiff has acted from the first, and is now acting, in pursuance of a fixed determination not to perform her duties as a wife. She has swowed her intention to live apart from her husband and to compel him to pay her almony. She abandoned her husband's home without cause or excuse. While tiving with him she applied to him such epithets as lar and common dog. She neglected him in sickness. On the other hand the defendant is showe to nave been attentive and considerate. At the boarding house he promised or him to prove the services of the records. dence upon the trial shall establish the facts alleged tive and considerate. At the boarding house he prised gratuities to the servants for their special serve to his wife. He brought home fruits and delicacies her. He bore in silence her rathings and insults. Under ercumstances like these it would be putting a premium upon unwifely conduct to allow the plaintin alimony. 19

DR. FLINT'S TEAPOT. The apparently mexhaustible teapot of "Dr." Flint was again present in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday, sending its necromancing steam whistling messages of mysterious import under the judicial nose. It was expected that Judge Brady would render a degision on the Doctor's application to be released from imprisonment. The Doctor is imprisoned for contempt of court in not paying alimony awarded his wife, and asked to be released on the ground that by reason of his poverty he was unable to comply with the order of the Court. Judge Brady said he was of the impression that three other judges had previously passed upon the same question submitted to him. But, however that might be, and however harsh might be the law which held a man imprisoned for contempt for not paying money he was unable to pay, such seemed to be the effect of the decisions, and he could not go back of them. He would be glad to be referred to some authority which would justify him in setting the man free under the circumstances. Mr. George W. Wilson, counsel for the prisoner, said be thought he could find such authority, and asked an adjournment for that purpose. Even the counsel for Mrs. Fint, who so unreientingly holds the Dector under legal restrant, seemed half inclined to consent to a release, and informed the court that he would consult his client as to the necessity of further insisting on the defendant's imprisonment. He admitted, in effect, that the migrisonment had heretofore been insisted upon principally because the defendant had taken occasion to making the resulting and an example of the migrisonment had heretofore been insisted upon principally because the defendant had taken occasion to making the resulting and the second of the migrisonment of migrison the resulting and the resulting the resulting and the second of the migrison of the defendant had taken occasion to migrison the resulting and the second of the migrison of the defendant had taken occasion to migrison the resulting and the second of the migrison of the defendant had taken occasion to migrison the resulting and the second of the migrison of the second of the the impression that three other judges had previously wish of both sides to terminate the Dector's impresement. Judge Brady concurred, saying he, too, was tired of the case, and, indeed, the dwire of all seemed to be that the Doctor might be able to appeal to his teapot for some legal and peaceful mode of removing it forever from the precincts of the halls of justice, matter was put over for a few days.

TAINTOR'S DEFALCATION.

The defalcation of Frank L. Taintor, formerly Cashier of the Atlantic National Bank, is al-ready quite familiar to the readers of the HERALD. of it a number of suits have grown, several of which have been aiready tried and reported.

Another of this class, which has been on trial before Judge Lawrence, in the Supreme Court, for several days past, was submitted to the jury yesterday and a sealed verdict ordered. The suit was brought by the Guardian Mutuan List Insurance Company to recover the amount of a loan of $50,000, or in lies thereof, the par value of some needed to throw no light on the general features of fainter's transactions beyond that already known. As to the immediate circumstances which led to the present suit, it appeared that Taintor, while cashier of the bank, borrowed the $50,000 in suit, leaving in pledge as colinteral the $50,000 in bout, also in suit. Subsequently Taintor asked the insurance company to deposit the bonds in the bank for the purpose of assisting in some bend exchanges. The company consented, and when Taintor's crash came it was found the bonds had been soil by him. The defence of the bonk now is, that the transaction was made with Taintor individually, and not with the bank, and that the latter is not responsible. Judge Lawrence, in the Supreme Court, for severa ble.

Judge Lawrence, in charging the jury, instructed them that if they believed the testimory given to the effect that after Izintor's embarrassment had become known the president of the bank stated that he (Taintor) acted for the bank, then they should find a verdict for plaintiff.

MR. BEECHER'S LITIGATIONS. The Victory Webb Printing and Folding Machin Manufacturing Company, of England, have brought a suit against Henry Ward Beecher and the other trustees of the Christian Union Publishing Company to recover $50,000 on account of damages for alleged printing machine from the plaintiffs. The compiaint alleges that the defendants alterward employed plaintiffs to make sundry alterations in the machine, which, on account of compilation, was not finished ustill December, 1875; that their incorporation expired in September, 1874, but that the company was immediately reorganized by the Same trustees, as shown by the certificates filed in the County Clerk's office; that the company assumed the contracts of the old company, and continued the correspondence with the plaintiffs about the purchase; that after considerable letter writing the machinery, which, with the additions, was to cost $2,750, was shipped to New York, and that they put up the machine, paid the expense of transportation and all other necessary expenses; that the machine, for some reason, did not suit, and was returned to plaintiffs' agent, with the understanding that the plaintiffs should not waive any claim for damages; that the machine is adapted to the purposes sold for and is valueless for any other purpose, and they finally demanded $50,000. The detendants made application a few days' since, before Judge Lawrence, to compel the plaintiffs of a foreign corporation to file security for costs. Judge Lawrence yesterday gave decision, denying the application, but without costs. nonfulfilment of a contract in 1872 to purchase

The motion for a preliminary injunction against the Gilbert Elevated Railway Company, enjoining the company from extending the railway on South Fifth avenue and West Broadway, on the property of Hutton & Anderson, was argued yesterday before Judge Johnstone, in the United States Court. The Judge Johnstone, in the Court yesterday. Boss against Robert Finan, already twice tried, was put on trial for the third time before Chief Justice Shea and a jury in the Marine Court yesterday. The case is of much importance to parties contracting with builders for the creeding of days.

Mr. Paran Stevens, deceased, advanced to a Mr. Dixon §24,000 for horses and carriages, which he intended to buy. Mr. Dixon gave him $16,00 worth of horses, and Mr. Stevens sent them back to be sold on his recount. The executors have brought suit for an accounting of the saies and for the balance of the $24,000. The case was on trial yesterday before Judge Sedgwick in the Superior Court, the defence being that some of the horses died and others became aimost worthless from defective stabling, and that defendant has claims against Mr. Stevens sufficient to offset the balance.

Professor Anthony Hague, the well known scientist, almost worthless from defective stabling, and that defendant has claims against Mr. Stevens sufficient to offset the balance.

Professor Anthony Hague, the well known scientist, who was arrested on Saturday night last, on a charge preferred by Frederick J. Mansfleid, a druggist on Fourth avenue, of passing a counterfeit twenty-oblar Treasury note on 24th November tast, was yesterday taken before Commissioner Shields for examination. Atter hearing all the evidence that could be adduced in support of the charge the Commissioner discharged the case until Wednesday next. The defence is a general denial, the Professor treating the charge as one castly retuited, and, as he alleges, one got up with intent to blackmail him.

The particulars of the suit of "General" Abraham Greenthal to be reinstated in the Congregation Beth Israel Bikur Sholim have already been given. The plaintiff, it will be remembered, was convicted of grand larceny in the Court of General Sessions and sent to State Prison, for which he was expelied. Judge Van Brunt, before whom the argument was heard yesterday, rendered a decision desying the application. He ho, as that it would be unjust to compel the congregation to associate with a man who had been convicted of felony.

Patrick Hughes brought a suit against Mary Hughes and others, claiming that she had detrauded him by depositing his money, which he had given her in trust, in the bank to her own credit. He sought to ratick Ringes orough a suit against sary ranges and others, claiming that she has delrauded him by depositing his money, which he had given her in trust, in the bank to her own credit. He sought to enjoin the Greenwich Savings Bank and the Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank from paying the moneys over to her or any one clse. Judge Var. Brunt decrees that what is left of the Greenwich Bank deposit must be refunded to him, but says the evidence is not sufficient to establish a claim to the money in the other institution.

Edward Burke paid an assessment on property in a case in which the assessment had afready been vacated, but of which vacation both he and the officials seem to have been ignorant. He then brought suit to recover from the city the amount he had thus paid. The city demurred to the complainit, taking the ground that the payment by planniff was voluntary, and he could not, therefore, recover the amount back. Yesterday Judge Van Hoesen, in Common Picas, Special Term, oefore whom the demurrer was argued, rendered a decision overruing it, and holding the payment made by Burke not to have been a voluntary payment in the legal acceptation of that term, but a payment under a mistake of facts, and such payments may be recovered back.

THE VACANT PARK COMMISSION-ERSHIP CORPORATION COUNSEL WHITNEY'S OPINION

MR. JOSEPH J. O'DONOHUE TO STEP DOWN By section 114 of the charter Mayor Wickham claimed last week that Park Commissioner Joseph J. O'Donobue vacates his office in serving as a Presidential elector. Mr. O'Donohue agreed to this version of the law, but stands on the technicality that he has not "resigned," preferring the more tender appellation of "vacated." Corporation Counsel Whitney has settled the matter finally, as far as the law is concerned, by sending in the following opinion to Mayer Wickham:-

the matter finally, as far as the law is concerned, by sending in the following opinion to Mayer Wickham:—

THE CORPORATION COUNSEL'S OPINION.

LAW DEPARTMENT,

OFFICE OF THE COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION,

NEW YORK, Dec. 7, 1876.

Hon. WILLIAM H. WICKHAM, MAYOF, &C.:—

SIR—I am in receipt of your communication of the 6th inst., in which you state you are informed that Joseph J. O'Donohue, heretofore appointed a member of the Board of Commissioners governing the Department of Fublic Parks and holding that office, has, during his term of office, accepted, held and still retains the office of an elector of President and Vice President of the United States. You call my attention to the provision of section 114 of chapter 335 of the Laws of 1873, and request to be advised whether Mr. O'Donchue must be deemed to have vacated the office of a commissioner of the Department of Public Parks.

Section 114 of the act referred to by you, being an act to reorganize the local government of the city, provides as follows:—"Any person holding office, whether by election or appointment, who shall, ouring his term of office, accept, hold or retain any other civil office of honor, trust or emolument under the government of the Cauthan any other civil office of honor, trust or emolument under the government of Deeds, or officer of the National Guard), or who shall hold or accept any other office connected with the government of the city of New York, or who shall accept a seat in the Legislature, shall be deemed thereby to have vacated every office held by him under the city government."

The Department of Public Parks is one of the department was created by and now exists under section 84 of the same law. Mr. O'Donohue, therefore, held an office under the city government. The office of President and Vice President of the Parks later is one created by and now exists under section 84 of the same law. Mr. O'Donohue, therefore, held an office under the city government.

department was created by and now exists under section $4$ of the same law. Mr. O'Dononue, therefore, held an office under the city government. The office of Elector of President and Vice President of the United States is one created by and existing under the statutes of this State, passed pursuant to the provisions of the constitution of the United States. (Revised Statutes, 6th edition, pp. 449, 441 and 447 to 450; Constitution of the United States, article 2, section 1.) In view of the lightly important duties devolved upon the Electoral College and the fact that the electors who perform such duties are entitled to the same compensation as is allowed to members of the Legislature for their attendance and travels, the office is undoubtedly one of honor, trust and emolument. The provision of the act above quoted covers civil offices of this charecter, both of the government of the United States and of the State. It is therefore immaterial, so far as concerns my answer to the quostion submitted by you, whether an elector is strictly and exclusively a State officer or whether he must be regarded as in part performing his duties under the government of the United States. In either view he comes directly within the provisions of the charter, and i therefore advise you that upon the lacts stated in your letter, Mr. O'Donohus has vacated his office of member of the Board having charge of the Department of Public Paras. I am, sir, yours respectibily, WILLIAM C. WHINEY, Counsel to the Corporation.

BOARD OF APPORTIONMENT.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT HOUSE-PARK IM-PROVEMENT FUND STOCK AND RENT OF ADMORIES-THE ESTIMATES FOR 1877.

A meeting of the Board of Apportionment was belo in the Mayor's office yesterday morning. Mayor Wickham, Comptroller Kelly and Tax Commissioner Wheeler were present. Mr. Porter, one of the Commissioners of the Third District Court House, asked for an appropriation of $50,000 to complete that strueture. A communication was also received from the ture. A communication was also received from the Park Department asking for an issue of $75,000 city park improvement fund stock. The judges of the Court of General Sessions requested an appropriation to meet salary expenditures for the months of November and December of this year. Those requests were all referred for consideration to Comptroller Kelly. A resolution was adopted authorizing Comptroller Kelly to issue bonds to the amount of $68,150, the money to be used for payment of reut of armories. The Board went into executive session during the afternoon upon the ostimates for 1877. They will hold several additional sessions before the final vote is taken.

THE GAS COMMISSION.

OPENING BIDS FOR SUPPLYING GAS FOR 1877-AN INCREASE IN PRICE DEMANDED. A meeting of the Gas Commission, consisting of Mayor Wickham, Comptroller Kelly and Commis-sioner Campbell, was held yesterday in the City Hell. The following proposals for lighting the city lamps

The following proposals for lighting the city lamps with gas during 1877 were opened:—

New York Gas Company, districts south of Grand street, $36 per lamp; Manhattan Gas Company, districts from Grand to Thirty-fourth street, $36; Mutual Gas Company, districts from Grand to Thirty-fourth street, $36; Mutual Gas Company, districts north of the New York, Manhattan and Metropolitan companies, $36; Metropolitan Gas Company, district between Thirty-fourth and Seventy-inith street, $37, Hariem Gas Company, districts north of Seventy-inith street, $37, 50.

The New York and Manhattan companies ask $15, per lamp more than they receive from the city at present, and the Mutual Company an increase of $10, 25. No awards have yet been made.

The appropriation for this year for furnishing gas to the city amounts to $700,000. Should the increase in bids of the New York and Manhattan and Mutual companies be allowed it will be necessary for the Board of Apportsonment to appropriate $831,000 for next year.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday afternoon, with Alderman Purroy in the chair. Nothing but routine business was transacted, and the Board adjourned till Thursday next.

ary next. The successor to Mr. Ely will only hold office until the 3d of March. It is understood that Ex-Governor Seymour was tendered the nomination, but refused to accept on the ground of ill health, Mr. David Dudley Field is also talked of for the democratic

COMPTROLLER KELLY.

THE NEW DEPUTY SWORN IN-MORE CHANGES

IN PROSPECT. Deputy Comptroller Richard A. Storrs was nto office yesterday before Mayor Wickham and imme-liately entered upon his new duties. No further hanges have yet taken place, although it is rumore that many heads will fall in the basket within a lew daya. Comptroller Kelly's policy seems to be to make haste slowly, and when chaures are made it is understood that none but efficient attachés will be appointed. A rush of all grades of politicians, from the election district runner to the ward statesman, is manifest daily around the Finance Department since the appointment of Mr. Kelly. Some of those enterprising gentlemen will be, doubless, disappointed in their expectations of places. The new Comptroller, his friends say, will conduct the business of his office solely with an eye to its thorough efficiency, irrespective of political considerations. Such a public trust as the Comptrollership of this city, they contend, should not be run in the shape of a political machine, and Mr. Kelly possesses independent characteristics which will insure an intelligent and honest administration for the next four years of that office. days. Comptroller Kelly's policy seems to be to make

WILLIAM M. TWEED.

HOW HIS CASE IS SHAPING-HIS QUARTERS IN

LUDLOW STREET JAIL. The facts of his delivery by the Spanish authorities stand mercly as facts and are surrounded in mystery; the return of Tweed is probably not more than an act of courtesy extended to the government of the United tates by the Spanish government, and it may be paying off an indebtedness owing us since Arguelles was spirited away from a New York hotel and sent back to Spanish authority, about twelve years ago, secretly and quietly, and without direct warrant of extradition to back up the transaction.

This pet expression of the Boss applies to the case as it stands. There is no difference in status of any of as it stands. There is no difference in status of any of the procedures; he quietly walked out from the barred doors of Ludiow street, and nobedy as yet knows where he went to atter his mysterious disappearance from the custody of deputy sheriffs whose optical delusions were certainly most effective. It applies also to the real estate investments and improvements of ex-Warden Dunbam at Long Branch, where he has been cultivating "garden sass" and painting his houses, like a veritable monarch of a nice locality at the seaside while Tweed has been away; and it applies to the prosecution against Tweed, who are no better off now that he is at home, and yet may find themselves at sea upon the question of interfering with possible disgorgements of real cetate "by him to others duly conveyed," and by the obligations which may exist to treat the distinguished visitor handsomely and carefully since he was sent back without the extradition warrant, and in the face of the old story indorsed by one of our Attorneys General, that the political decrine of the United States does not imply that any State is under obligation to deliver up fugitives from justice, except upon a special compact, or due process of law and requisition.

a special compact, or due process of law and requisition.

COMPORTABLE IN HIS QUARTERS.

With abundant leisure to think over his old associations in the cosey room, where there were bottlen of good champagne always on the ice, the "Boss" was as comfortable and resigned yesterday as he could well be under the sunny skies of spain. The lowering clouds without made him just a little weary, and be had but short conferences with his visitors, and yet, to judge from his lew words to a friend, "he fluds the air of New York congenial and the political situation amusing enough to keep the papers busy and give something to read." He seems also to enjoy the fact that he will tell nothing; his personal effects and baggage will be restored to him by the authorities at Washington, and the question of further procedure against him does not bother the man who may be called the "Great Defendant."

THE AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY.

DENIAL OF THE LOSS OF ONE MILLION DOLLARS BY THE BAILBOAD ACCIDENT.

A report was circulated in Wali street yesterday that the loss sustained by the American Express Company by the destruction of their sales at the railroad accitent at Looneyville, near Buffalo, amounted to $1,000,000. A HERALD reporter called at the company's office in Broadway yesterday, and learned from Mr. C. G. Clark, the managing director, that the accident had happened to the express on the New York Central Railroad, about sixteen miles this side of Buffaio. One express car load of market produce, principally poultry, was entirely consumed; likewise a portion of a second express car. Benjamin Woodworth, of Utica, who had been in the employ of the company about fitteen years, was burned to death. The through Chicago sale, which was in his keeping, contained by a wonderful chance only $700, which was acstroyed. Woodworth's safe, which he had brought from Buffaio, did not contain, as far as Mr. Clark had been able to learn, a large amount of money. He said he had not yet learwed the precise sum, although he thought an estimate of $10,000 would be the hignest figure it could be safely piaced at. Indeed, he said it might not be half of that sum.

About six months ago Andrews, an express messenger in the employ of the American Express, met his death by burning, like Woodworth, on the Great Western of Canada Railroad. The express companies at this season of the year are carrying more money West than East.

THE BROOKLYN ALDERMEN.

DEMOCRATS AND THE REPUBLICANS.

There is likely to be a lively canvass for the office of President of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen. The emocrats have one majority in the Board, and the republicans hope by internal dissensions among their opponents to elect their candidate. There are, it is aid, such vast interests involved, as far as the democrats are concerned, that they fully realize the importance of acting as a unit, and will not afford their opponents the slightest chance to thwart them. Of course, the great point is to retain possession of the various commissions and other city departments. With a republican majority in the new Board the Police, Fire and City Works Commissions, beside the departments of colcommissions and other city of partitions. With a republican majority in the new Board the Police, Fire and City Works commissions, beside the departments of collection. Arrests and Tressury, with their accompanying patropage, a considerable item in itself, wor'd pass out of their hands. While the democrats are best on retaining all these the republicans are just as hard at work in endeavoring to wrest them away. As the first move toward accomplishing their purpose the republicans are working to elect one of their number President of the Board, but they labor at the outset under the disadvantage of disaffection among themselves. The difficulty is that three men want one place, and each man declares that he must have it. These three are John French, the present presiding officer; Alderman Ray, of the Thriconth ward, and Alderman F. B. Fisher, of the Twenty-third ward. A caucus of the republican members will be held this evening, when it is expected they will decide upon their candidate.

BROOKLYN ELEVATED RAILROAD.

A jetition was read in the Brooklyn Board of Alder nen yesterday from the Executive Committee of the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad Company, asking for the change of route from that fixed to one as follows:— Commencing at Fulton ferry, along Water street, Pearl street, Willoughty street, Gold street, DeKaib avenue, Grand avenue, Lexington avenue to Broad-way, and thence to the city line.
